PANIC ON THE EGYPT

Heavy List Made It Impossible to Reach Lifeboats; Nearly 100 Lives Lost

(By the Associated Press)

Brest, May 22.—The thickest fog in years around the Finistere-Ushant light alone was responsible for the catastrophe to the British steamship Egypt, according to Captain LeBaron, commanding officer of the freight steamer Seine, in his report to the ministry of merchant marine.

The Seine rammed the Egypt Saturday night and nearly 100 persons lost their lives in the disaster. Among them were two Americans, Mrs. M. L. Sibley and Miss Virginia M. Boyer, missionaries on their way to India. "The fog was so thick," says the report, "that the captain on the bridge was unable to see the bow of his ship."

"On Saturday at 4:20 p. m., the fog became so thick that I gave orders to slow down to 50 revolutions a minute, thus maintaining an average speed of six knots. At 7 o'clock I heard a horn quite close and immediately a huge bulk appeared at right angles crossing our bow. I gave orders to reverse the engines. But, too late, a terrible crash occurred, my ship striking the other shipsides."

Egypt Went Down by Stern.

"The fog whistle was sounded and I finally succeeded in catching sight of a great liner, which was listing badly to starboard. At 7:45 the ship, which later was identified as the Egypt, went down by the stern."

"I ordered all the boats lowered and scoured the sea for hours, picking up several dead and also many in whom life was not extinct. I gave up about 11:50 and returned to Brest."

The disaster occurred a few miles from Green Rocks, where the Drummond Castle was wrecked in June, 1896, with a loss of 247 lives. A heavy fog still hangs over the shore of Finistere, making the work of the searching parties difficult.

When the vessels came together, those aboard the Egypt did not realize at first the extent of the damage caused by the little freighter Seine. It was some minutes before the liner began to heel over and then the passengers dashed in great alarm from the dining room to the deck. Captain LeBaron urged them to be calm and ordered out the boats, for which there was a rush. The Lascars, it is asserted, used clubs in an attempt to get possession of the boats but the officers drew their revolvers and drove them away.

Ninety-Eight Are Missing.

Ninety-eight persons are missing and 242 were saved of those who were on board the Egypt, according to the latest official figures.

The pursuer estimated that 15 passengers, 30 white officers, and 50 Lascars of the crew were missing.

Tugs and small war craft have been searching the scene of the wreck ever since the collision, but no other bodies in addition to those picked up soon afterward had been found up to this afternoon. It was not considered possible any other survivors floating around in lifeboats could have been missed.

Hopes were still entertained, however, that some of the small ships which answered the Egypt's "S. O. S." calls may have taken aboard a few others.

The Egypt went down in 400 feet of water. She carried $300,000 in gold, besides a consignment of mail for India. So far one mail pouch has been picked up, but nothing else except the wreckage from the crash which was found on the surface. The vessel's papers were lost.

Panic Blamed for Loss of Life.

London, May 22.—If it had not been for the Lascars and natives rushing for the boats all the women would have been saved."

This declaration is made in a signed statement given to the correspondent of the Evening News at Brest by Joseph Duff, a Scotchman, who was a passenger on the Egypt.

The correspondent declared that there is ample confirmation of a panic, although both passengers and officers of the ship are extremely reticent about today, as if in a daze. He would say of the tragedy was: "I am the captain of the Egypt and she is now lying at the bottom of the ocean."

Robert S. Devan, an American survivor, explained that the great list the

BOLIVIA SEEKS TO JOIN CONFERENCE

But Her Request Is Denied Consideration by Peruvian and Chilean Delegates

Washington, May 22.—Bolivia's request for a seat in the Ancon conference here was denied consideration today by the Peruvian and Chilean delegates.

Without wasting words, the Chilean delegation notified the Bolivian legation in a brief memorandum that it did not even feel disposed to forward the Bolivian note to its government at Santiago.

The Peruvians sent to the legation a more extended explanation of their position but insisted that the instructions of the delegation did not empower it to comply with the Bolivian request.

What would be the next step in the controversy was uncertain tonight, although Bolivian spokesmen indicated that they were not content to accept today's verdict as final. The possibility of an appeal to the United States government was suggested, while in other quarters it was said that having failed to get her case before the two delegations, Bolivia might address herself directly to Santiago and Lima.

There was no evidence that President Harding, should he be asked to intervene, would be disposed to take any other attitude than that set forth in the reply to the former Bolivian request for participation sent to him soon after the conference was called in January.

On this occasion, however, he answered that the question of Bolivia's admission must be decided by Chile and Peru.

DRINKING AMONG COLLEGE STUDENTS HAS DIMINISHED

Boston, May 22.—Drinking among college students has diminished materially since the 18th amendment was enacted, and in a majority of colleges that were canvassed drinking has practically disappeared, according to President F. C. Southworth of the Meadville Theological school. His report of an investigation of the subject was made today to a public meeting of the Unitarian temperance society by Professor C. R. Brown of Meadville.

"The accusation is frequently made that prohibition has increased drinking among college students," President Southworth said in the circular letter sent to deans of 480 American colleges. "The tenor of the 508 replies was overwhelmingly to the effect that there had been a marked decrease during the past three years," his report said.

APPARENTLY NO REVOLUTION HAS OCCURRED IN BULGARIA

Vienna, May 22.—Apparently no revolution has taken place in Bulgaria. Belgrade advices, and also the Bulgarian legation minimize the reported troubles. There have been conflicts only between the Communists and the Wrangel soldiers, after a resolution was adopted by the Communists demanding the expulsion of the soldiers.

Egypt took immediately after the collision made it difficult for the passengers to approach the lifeboats. He admitted there was a certain amount of panic.

A. W. Harwick, the senior wireless operator, was not on duty when the collision occurred, but he rushed to the wireless cabin and took the place of the operator on duty, sticking to his post until the ship sank and dying with his hand on the key sending out the signals "SOS." Harwick recently was on the Russian icebreaker Lenine and saved the lives of two Germans when it ran on the rocks.

Were Missionary Workers.

Boston, May 22.—Mrs. H. L. Sibley and Miss V. M. Boyer, the American women who are missing from the British ship Egypt, sunk off the coast of France, were missionaries bound for India, who had been in this city recently. Mrs. Sibley, a member of the staff of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, has relatives in Toledo, Ohio. Miss Boyer, who formerly made her home at Aspinwall, Pa., was going out as a teacher in a school for missionaries and children in South India. Mrs. Sibley was a widow somewhat beyond middle years, returning to her station in the city of New York, with no parents or relatives alive, was taking up work in the mission fields for the first time.

Miss Boyer an Orphan.

Pittsburgh, May 22.—Miss Virginia Boyer, reported missing after the liner Egypt went down off the coast of France last Saturday night, was a Lutheran missionary returning to India after a furlough spent in Pittsburgh. Miss Boyer, who was an orphan, had been reared in the Lutheran orphan's home near here and later became a nurse in Passavant hospital. Her station in India was Bahmundry. Her latest visit in this country was occasioned by ill-health.

Circus Crowd in Panic As Lion Escapes From Cage

Buffalo, May 22.—Thousands watching a circus performance tonight were terrified when a lion escaped from its cage. The lion ran out of the main tent, through another tent and into the street. Pursued by circus employees, it ran three blocks before it was finally cornered. Several hundred people followed the lion out of the tent and when he was cornered and roped down there was a great crowd encircling the spot. There was another panic when the beast broke loose from the ropes and charged directly into the crowd. The mob was too dense for the lion to penetrate, however, and it halted, snarling.

The lion was finally securely roped and lifted into a cage which had been drawn to the scene.

BURCH JURY DISAGREES

For Second Time, No Decision Is Reached in Case of Los Angeles Man

THIRD TRIAL LIKELY

Second Trial of Mrs. Obenchain,
Co-Defendant, Is Set for June 5

Los Angeles, May 22.—The jury in the case of Arthur C. Burch, who was jointly indicted with Mrs. Madeline Obenchain, both being charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, local broker, at Kennedy's summer cottage at Beverly Glen, near here the night of August 5, last, was discharged today without reaching a verdict.

After adjournment, the four women jurors gathered around the Rev. and Mrs. Burch, parents of the defendant, and shook hands with them. "We all feel very sorry for you," Deputy District Attorney Asa Keyes said there would undoubtedly be another trial. The second trial of Mrs. Obenchain is set for June 5.

The first Burch jury stood 10 to 2 for conviction and the Obenchain jury 9 to 3 for conviction.

Jurors said that the final ballot was 7 to 5 for acquittal. The division was unchanged since Saturday after the first ballot of six to six. The four women on the jury voted for acquittal. The case was placed on the calendar for next Saturday, to be set for a third trial.

The prosecution's theory was that Burch, being infatuated with Mrs. Obenchain, a former college acquaintance, shot Kennedy at her instigation, after Kennedy, with whom she was in love, had refused to marry her.

The evidence showed that on July 17 Mrs. Obenchain telegraphed to Burch, who was in Evanston, Ill., to come to Los Angeles, the telegram saying, "I need you and the friend I had last summer." Burch arrived here July 23 bringing with him a shot gun case, according to the testimony. The prosecution claimed that the gun was the "friend" referred to in the telegram.

Burch took a room in a hotel commanding a view of Kennedy's office and watched the office windows for long periods, according to hotel employees. According to the testimony, he also rented an automobile under an assumed name and took extended trips.

Mrs. Obenchain and Kennedy went driving the night of August 5. And about nine o'clock stopped at Kennedy's summer cottage in Beverly Glen. As Kennedy was mounting a flight of steps in front of the cottage, two shot-guns were fired. One struck Kennedy, and medical testimony showed that death was instantaneous.

SENATE RETURNS TO TARIFF FIGHT

Resumes Night Sessions But With Little Progress; Dye Controversy Postponed

Washington, May 22.—The senate returned today to its struggle with the tariff bill, resuming night sessions but making comparatively little progress. Most of the time was given to consideration of minor amendments, the dye fight being postponed again this time until Wednesday, because of the illness of Senator King of Utah, who is to lead the Democratic fight on both the license embargo and tariff duty provisions.

The chief controversy today centered on the committee amendment to make the duty on red or brown quarry tiles five cents a square foot and 30 cent ad valorem, which was approved after the rejection, 24 to 36, of an amendment by Senator Shepard, Democrat of Texas, to fix the rate of 20 per cent ad valorem. In opposing the committee rate, Senator Hitchcock, Democrat of Nebraska, declared the American people were tired of having their pockets picked and wanted to see further price reductions. He argued that instead of reductions there would be increases if the pending bill was passed.

COAL MINERS TO FRAME REPLY TO OPERATORS

Hazleton, Pa., May 22.—The senate committee of the anthracite coal miners will meet in New York tomorrow to begin framing the reply to the proposal of the operators for a 21 per cent wage reduction. If the reply can be got into shape by Wednesday there will be a resumption of the conferences with the operators in New York Thursday, when the answer of the miners will be submitted, Thomas Kennedy, chairman of the scale committee, announced today.

I. O. O. F. GRAND ENCAMPMENT.

Poughkeepsie, May 22.—With representatives of 202 encampments present, the annual session of the grand encampment, I. O. O. F., of the state of New York, opened here tonight when the grand encampment degree was exemplified. Tomorrow's program includes a public meeting in the morning at which the delegates will be welcomed to the city by Mayor George D. Campbell and the mayor of Grand Patriarch William W. Howland of Mount Vernon. The sessions will end on Wednesday.

SUMMER CAPITOL TO BE ON LAKE GEORGE THIS SEASON

Albany, May 22.—The summer capitol will be at Lake George this season. It was learned at the executive chambers today that Governor Miller has leased Erlowest, the country estate of the late Edward M. Shepard of New York. Erlowest is situated on the Bolton road, on the west side of the lake about two and one-half miles north of the village of Lake George.

WATSON AND PHIPPS ARE NEAR TO BLOWS

Post Office Appointments in Georgia Start Hot Exchange

Washington, May 22.—The post office appointments in Georgia started a hot exchange in the senate today between Senator Watson, Democrat, of that state, and Senator Phipps, of Colorado, a Republican member of the post office committee, with the result that business was disrupted for several minutes, after which the two senators took their controversy into the corridor with the Georgia senator offering personal combat.

"If you say a word out of the way, I'll knock you down," Senator Watson said he told the Colorado senator, after they left the senate chamber. Senator Phipps declined to see newspaper men to discuss the incident.

Senator Watson, discussing the dispute which began while the senate was discussing an army bill, said Senator Phipps declined the challenge to personal combat, called a senate, sergeant-at-arms and then walked away.

The Georgia senator said that the dispute involved three postmaster nominations — Jack Current to be postmaster at Savannah, Ga.; J. B. Crane at Dixie, Ga., and Lawson H. Richards at Tenuille, Ga. All are "personally objectionable" to him, Senator Watson said, and he so notified Senator Phipps. Mr. Watson stated that the Chairman Townsend of the postoffice committee, had allowed him to name a sub-committee to consider the three nominations and that he, Mr. Watson, had chosen Phipps on the sub-committee.

Senator Phipps, since has been in correspondence with the nominees, although Senator Watson said he himself had received no letters from them. Last Saturday, Senator Watson said, Mr. Phipps gave him some of the correspondence and asked him to look over the papers.

Today Senator Watson said he went to Senator Phipps and told him that he would not examine the papers and demanded to know whether his opposition to the three nominees who were "personally objectionable" was to be recognized, as is the senatorial custom.

A number of persons in the senate corridors witnessed the clash between the senators, being attracted apparently by the loud discussion which broke into a speech on the floor by Senator Watson before the senators went outside.

Mr. Watson said he proposed to prevent confirmation of the three nominees, all of whom, he said, had made derogatory statements about him.

NEW MUSCLE SHOALS OFFER

Alabama Power Company Ready to Buy Railroad and Transmission
Lines Running to Alabama Project

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, May 22.—An offer to comply with terms of the contract negotiated between the war department and the Alabama Power company when its plant at Gorgas was enlarged to supply power for the nitrate plants at Muscle Shoals, Ala., during the war has been made to Secretary Weeks by representatives of the company here. The offer is contained in an offer to pay $2,500,000 for the government's light plant, railroad and transmission lines from Gorgas to Muscle Shoals.

Notice that the proposal had been received was given the senate agriculture committee today by Secretary Weeks after the examination of Hugh L. Cooper, New York civil engineer, advisor to the war department, and P. M. Lowmyer, vice president of the Pacific Gas and Electric company of San Francisco.

Secretary Wallace, also in an authorized statement presented by Dr. Richard C. Tomlin, said the agriculture department favored any development by private or government control which would insure the use of Muscle Shoals in making fertilizers.

The secretary explained that Mr. Ford was the only offer before congress when his statement was made recently before the house military committee commending that proposal.

VICTIM SLAYS BLACKMAILER

Son of Head of Ward Baking Company Kills Former Sailor in

MAKES CONFESSION

Walter S. Ward Declares Blackmail Levies Totalling $25,000
Were Forced From Him

White Plains, May 22.—Blackmail levies totalling $25,000 were forced from Walter S. Ward, of New Rochelle, millinaire son of the head of the Ward Baking company of New York, before he shot and killed Clarence Peters, a former sailor of Haverhill, Mass., it was declared tonight following his confession and arrest today.

This, with the announcement of Sheriff Werner that he expected to have under arrest within 24 hours two alleged accomplices of Peters in the blackmail plot, was the newest development tonight in the sensational case.

The shooting, according to Ward, occurred after Peters and his two alleged accomplices had threatened to kill him, his wife and their two children if he did not pay an additional levy of $75,000.

Trio of Blackmailers.

After surrendering himself to Sheriff Werner today, Ward, who is 31 years of age, is alleged to have declared that Peters, whom he had known for several years, and two companions, known to him only as "Charlie Ross" and "Jack," had been blackmailing him for the past six weeks. He said they had forced from him various sums. Sheriff Werner said tonight that these totalled approximately $25,000.

Ward said to have declared that he met Peters by appointment on the Port Chester road, near New Rochelle. This followed the receipt of a letter and numerous telephone calls from the trio, demanding a final payment of $75,000.

In a detailed description of the fight which preceded the killing, Ward said that the authorities told "Ross" and "Jack" had followed his coupe, in which he had Peters, in a fast motor car of an expensive make. After driving several miles, the trailing car shot ahead and blocked the road, compelling Ward to stop.

How Killing Came About.

Peters alighted, Ward said, keeping a pistol pointed at him, and ordered him to follow. Ward said that as he did so he grasped the pistol in Peters' hand and turned the muzzle upward, at the same time reaching with his left hand into his own pocket and drawing an automatic gun. Ward said he fired. Peters fired in return and dropped. In the ensuing gun fight with "Ross" and "Jack," Ward escaped unscathed, although his car was punctured by several bullets.

Peters' body, found the following day, lay in a morgue here three days before the authorities identified it through the United States marine corps record. With only the finger prints as a clue, the authorities communicated with the police of Haverhill, who took the case up with Peters' relatives. Telegraphic descriptions furnished by an uncle finally established the identity.

Ward is vice-president of his father's baking concern and two weeks ago was re-elected to head the New Rochelle police commission. He was secretary-treasurer of the Brooklyn club of the Federal league.

CONGRESS WINS RACE WITH THE LANDLORDS

Puts Through Two-Year Extension to District of Columbia
Rent Control

Washington, May 22.—Congress raced today with the landlords of Washington and won by four hours and 45 minutes—putting through a two-year extension to the recent rent control act for the District of Columbia which would have expired at midnight tonight.

The house fought over it all day but the senate adopted it in less time than was required by the house for one of its numerous roll calls. Just as soon as it could be signed by the vice president and Acting Speaker Walsh it was sent to the White House, where it was signed tonight by President Harding.

Most of the time in the house was taken up by standing votes demanded by Representative Blanton, Democrat of Texas, who with Representative Millsap, Republican of Missouri, led the opposition. Members stood up sixty times to be counted.

PHILIPPINE CREDIT BILL NOW BEFORE PRESIDENT

Washington, May 22.—The Philippine credit bill, passed recently by the house, authorizing an increase from $30,000,000 to about $72,000,000 in bonds the insular government may issue, was passed today by the senate without amendment and now goes to President Harding. The bill also debted $2,000,000 from $5,500,000.

Governor General Wood urged the legislation to develop irrigation projects, repayment of government loans and to provide a gold reserve and a sinking fund.

SENATE ATTACK ON DAUGHERTY REVIVED

Attorney General Directly Interested in C. W. Morse's Release,
Caraway Charges

Washington, May 22.—Renewing his attack on Attorney General Daugherty in the senate today, Senator Caraway, Democrat of Arkansas, placed in the Congressional record alleged copies of two more letters purporting to show that Mr. Daugherty was active and directly interested in obtaining the release from the Atlanta penitentiary of Charles W. Morse, the shipbuilder.

The letters, published today in a local newspaper, Senator Caraway said, showed that Mr. Daugherty was engaged as counsel in the case because he had the confidence of former President Taft, who commuted Mr. Morse's 15-year sentence, and charged that Mr. Daugherty had "abused" Mr. Taft's confidence.

One of the letters purported to be from Thomas B. Felder, New York attorney, alleged to have been associated with Mr. Daugherty in the Morse pardon case. The other, alleged to have been written by Frank L. Seelye, editor of the Atlanta Georgian, to Mr. Felder, said that Mr. Morse "owes his liberty and his life to yours and Mr. Daugherty's efforts." Mr. Seelye said his interest was "purely philanthropic." Both letters bore 1917 dates.

ALIENISTS TO EXAMINE CONDEMNED MURDERER

New York, May 22.—Three alienists will examine Julius Rosenwasser, condemned murderer, in the death house at Sing Sing prison Wednesday, according to a ruling today by General Sessions Judge Nott. Rosenwasser was granted a reprieve by Governor Miller last week, a few hours before the time set for his death in the electric chair. He was convicted in connection with the killing of Jacob Mazzausa in January, 1921, and of robbing him of $2,400.

Ossining, May 22.—A preliminary examination of Julius Rosenwasser, condemned murderer, for whom a commission in lunacy had been appointed, was made by alienists in the Sing Sing prison death house tonight. No announcement of the finding will be made until after the scheduled examination on Wednesday, when the alienists will report to Governor Miller.

SEVEN R. R. EXECUTIVES MEET I. C. C. OFFICIALS

Washington, May 22.—Seven railroad executives, representing the group of 19 which participated in the White House dinner conference Saturday at which President Harding asked voluntary action by the railroad in certain rate reductions, today held a two-hour session with the members of the inter-state commerce commission.

Although the formal announcement of the conference was made by Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio, one of the conferees, merely said the meeting was for the purpose of discussing the rate situation. The session generally was regarded as the first step by the railroad towards possible compliance with the president's request and toward carrying out the agreement made at the White House conference.

STEEL MEN AGREE TO PROBE BY DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Washington, May 22.—Representatives of the Bethlehem and Lackawanna Steel companies, at a conference today with Attorney General Daugherty, gave assurances that the merger of the two companies will not be consummated until the department of justice completes its investigation of the case. Mr. Daugherty announced at the conclusion of the meeting. The conference, arranged at the request of the steel men, was a prelude to the conference the attorney general will have with representatives of the Bethlehem and other independent steel companies named in the recent senate resolution ordering an inquiry by the department of justice and the federal trade commission into the proposed merger.

MRS. VALENTINO SILENT

New York, May 22.—Mrs. Rudolph Valentino arrived here last night. She left her train at Newark, N. J., and made the rest of her journey by automobile to avoid the crowd awaiting her at the railroad station here. The second wife of the motion picture star maintained her silence, refusing to talk about her marriage with the actor of the silent drama which resulted in his arrest on a charge of bigamy in Los Angeles.

Lady Astor Asks U. S. Be Europe's Good Samaritan

New York, May 22.—Lady Nancy Astor, in a farewell speech before returning to her job in the house of commons from a visit of six weeks in her native land, tonight pleaded for Americans to be the Good Samaritans to suffering Europe and not stand by unconcerned. She repeated her appeal for the United States to either enter the League of Nations or "a league with similar aims for peace."

Nearly 2,000 men and women heard her address, delivered at a dinner given in her honor by the League for Political Education. Lady Astor made a short talk after she had finished. Before she was introduced speeches were delivered by John W. Davis,

NEW EFFORTS TO RELEASE LABOR CHIEFS

Attorneys Secure Writ Which May Result in Eight Men Being Freed on Bail Today

FITZMORRIS AROUSED

Asks Thousand More Policemen to Protect Chicago; Three Deeds of Violence Yesterday

Chicago, May 22.—A new effort to release on bail Fred Mader, president of the Building Trades council, and seven other labor leaders indicted recently in connection with the murder of two policemen, was made today.

This effort came in the shape of a writ of habeas corpus which may result, it was said, in the prosecution having to reveal to the defense the nature of the evidence which it says it has against the labor leaders.

The writ, which is returnable tomorrow, requires that John Miller, who is said by the police to have admitted that he drove the death car in which the slayers of the two policemen escaped, be produced in court and be required to reveal the nature of the confession which he is said to have made.

Should it be found by the court that the alleged confession does not implicate the men under arrest, the prosecution will be required to show that they have enough evidence against the men to warrant their being held.

A Day of Crime.

A woman was shot, two others were imprisoned while their apartment was looted of $10,000 in diamonds and other jewelry, and a paymaster was robbed of $11,150 today while Charles Fitzmorris, chief of police, was seeking the appointment of 1,000 more policemen.

The request, based on recent outbreaks of crime which revealed that some 300 wealthy families have been employing private guards, will be voted on by the council tomorrow.

Among today's crimes, the most spectacular was the robbery of James Hanley, assistant cashier of the Sinclair Oil Refining company.

Hanley, with a companion, was driving in an automobile to the bank to deposit $11,150. Hanley's car was crowded into the curb by another machine containing three men. Two of them leaped into Hanley's car, overpowered the two oilmen, grabbed a satchel containing the money, and then drove away after tearing loose some electrical wires on the Hanley automobile.

PROBE OF INSTITUTE OF AGRICULTURE IS RESUMED

Farmingdale, May 22.—On the payroll of the state institute of agriculture the list of instructors includes at least one janitor and one librarian, Dr. Allen Roberts, dean of the faculty testified today when an investigation of the institution ordered by Governor Miller was resumed by Edward G. Zimmer, deputy state comptroller.

Several members of the faculty, Dr. Roberts testified, were paid part of their salaries out of the contingent fund. He stated that instances where money from the same source paid for repairs to a billiard table in the home of A. A. Johnson, director of the school.

Dr. R. Berts also testified that trustees of the institution started an elementary school last year because Dr. Johnson did not want to send his son to a school two miles distant.

KELLOGG CALLS 200 MORE VENIEMEN IN MURDER TRIAL

Blington, May 22.—A panel of 100 talesmen was exhausted and only two jurors were accepted today in the opening session of the trial of Bruno Frenzi, jointly charged with Frank Salina, of the murder of Luigi Gentile March 19 last in a cafe.

Supreme Court Justice A. L. Kellogg, presiding at the trial, has ordered 200 additional veniemens to report Wednesday besides 300 previously empaneled.

The murder is believed to have been the result of a previous street fight. Frenzi had just been released from Auburn prison, having been tried for murder in the first degree and receiving an 18-year sentence of which he had served 14 years.

CHEAP MONEY AGAIN IS DOMINANT FACTOR

Higher Range of Prices Quoted During Day, But Realizing for Profits Ensues Later

New York, May 22.—Cheap money was again the dominant factor in the higher range of prices quoted during today's active stock market session but realizing for profits ensued later as the rate for call money stiffened from 3 1/2 to 5 per cent.

Recent minimum quotations for time funds, ranging from 20 days to virtually six months, were renewed, although last Saturday's report of local clearing house institutions disclosed the largest total of loans and discounts thus far this year.

United States Steel established a new high record for the current movement, although among the first of the popular issues to yield to realizing sales. Active trading among rails was confined to secondary stocks. New Haven forfeiting a considerable part of last week's rise, while Erie gained almost two points.

The greater part of today's fairly large operations in the bond market centered around speculative rails and several of the local utilities, domestic and foreign, were again contributing less than their usual proportions. Almost all the Liberties were appreciably better, however, especially the tax-exempt 3 1/2s and third 4 1/2s. French issues held steady, despite the lower trend of exchange, but British offerings failed to respond to the better tone of sterling exchange.

TURTLE? NO!
This is a simple but true fact that may be found in this section of the state. Should you find them during house cleaning time don't worry, as it is easy to rid them with the use of the New Chemical P. D. Q. (Pest Destroyer Quicker). No matter how large they may be, color or sex or where they came from, P. D. Q. will kill them and their eggs as if liquid fire had hit them.

Not an insect powder, no dust or mace; will not irritate clothing, and will actually kill Mosquitoes, Cooties, Bed Bugs, Fleas and Ants and puts an everlasting to the Pesky Devils, as it destroys future generations. Impossible for them to exist with its proper use.

Get from your Druggist's a 35c package; this will make a quart; each package contains a patent sprout to get them in the hard-to-get-at places. Special Hospital and Hotel size makes five gallons. P. D. Q. can also be purchased in liquid form in a handy bottle with patent sprout in each package. Your Druggist has it or can get it for you.

Buy a "New" Used Car

Use does not hurt an automobile. In fact any machine is the better for having been used, because it has proved itself mechanically perfect and is well limbered up. The only thing that USE hurts is the price. Every car depreciates in price once it has been used. If it has only been driven 100 miles the price drops from 39 to 40 per cent.

Woman Relied Upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Emporia, Kansas.—"I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines years ago when I was a girl. For several years I had severe pains at menstrual periods, making me very weak and interfering with my regular duties. I tried several remedies without obtaining relief. I was induced to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound and it restored me to normal health. I often have occasion and do recommend my Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to my own. You may use these facts as a testimonial." — EVA ALDRICH, 218 Union St., Emporia, Kansas.

There are many women who first used our Vegetable Compound during their girlhood days. They found it a valuable help during trying periods. In later years they use it whenever they feel those annoying symptoms which women often have.

It is prepared carefully from medicinal plants, whose properties are especially adapted to correct the troubles women have.

PICTURES IN THE SCHOOLS

Thomas J. Casey, principal of the Gladstone school in Chicago, affirms that there is a way of getting the modern schoolboy to love instead of hate the place where education dwells. Following his plan, he says, instead of sending policemen to drag them to school, the peace officers will be required to drag them home. The secret of it he holds to be an amplification of the present scheme of visual instruction.

The schools, which now have books, libraries and laboratories, should in his opinion also have moving pictures, which should be of such a sort as to interest the pupils in actual events as well as to follow the requirements of the course of study. If this is done subject matter can be presented with such vividness as to make the vehicle through which it is carried as entertaining as a story book.

For example, it is suggested that the study of history should be supplemented by pictures, of which perhaps "The Birth of a Nation" might be an example. Nature study could be made more interesting by films representing the life history of a toad, which at the same time would teach the lesson that on account of their usefulness to the farmer they should not be destroyed, one toad being worth practically twenty dollars on a farm in a single season. In the same happy fashion a lesson in physical geography could be supplemented by a film called "The Work of Rivers."

Granted that part of the interview with Mr. Casey may be film propaganda, at the same time it has in it the elements of a helpful suggestion. Formerly the study of history, or literature, or philosophy or nature was in the main perfunctory and dry-as-dust. Now it should be possible to inspire the reader of George Eliott by a picture play of "The Mill on the Floss," or of Dickens by "Oliver Twist," in like fashion portrayed, or of Cooper by films of "The Deerslayer" or "The Last of the Mohicans," both of which have been well screened. As for history the themes which it suggests are innumerable, and this is true also in other departments of study.

There was a time not beyond the memory of many now living when the only adjunct to the text book and teacher in the school room was the blackboard. Later came pictures and wall maps, lectures and the stereopticon. Today there is the sensible belief that there is nothing beyond the reasonable requirements of the school room so long as it makes instruction interesting, and the place of recitation and of pleasure and of penance, it may well be that no distant time will see every school-house count as one of its adjuncts, the moving picture machine adapted to the restricted requirements of the rural school room.

IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

Important decisions have been handed down by the supreme court during the past week, as affecting the child labor law previously referred to, and the grain futures law. The same principle is involved in each, but its application in connection with grain futures is more interesting. The financial, just as the companion decision is more interesting to the industrial elements in the community. The court holds in both cases that congress is exceeding its powers when it undertakes indirectly to regulate the acts of a citizen in transactions which are obviously intrastate. In character, a similar test was applied in the recent stockyards and packers decision, where it was held that no matter how desirable and beneficial a given legislative proposal might be the decision regarding it was to be based, not upon its merits, but upon the question whether it was, after all, a constitutional exercise of the power of congress. In the stock yards case, the exercise of the power of control was upheld because of the fact that the packing houses were held to be essentially channels of interstate trade. Future trading or the personnel conditions in factories are held in like manner not to be included within the power of congress in such a connection. This series of decisions is not only important in its bearing upon trading at the present time, but also fundamentally significant from the broader economic standpoint.

OPENS MEMORIAL DAY

Colonel's Inn at Chenango Lake anticipates busy season.
Norwich, May 22.—Chenango lake, a few miles east of this city and in mecca for summer visitors in this section, will have its formal opening Memorial Day. There is no more healthful and beautiful spot in all Chenango county than this place, and its popularity even extends beyond the borders of this immediate section, for guests from Binghamton, Syracuse, Utica and even New York city stop here for weeks at a time.

There is only one hotel at the lake, the Colonel's Inn, named after the late Col. E. J. Loomis, the one man who made Chenango lake the center for summer tourists. This hotel will have its formal opening that day and W. G. L. Pitt, manager, contemplates a large package. Many Norwich residents have cottages at the lake, but none of these will be occupied for three or four weeks yet.

Salvaging the Army.

The senate appropriations committee is preparing to report the army appropriation bill with a pay allotment which will support an army of 140,000 men during the next fiscal year. Such action will mark a return to a common sense basis of estimating the army's needs. The House of Representatives, in an excessive zeal for economy, cut the strength of the army to 115,000 men. [New York Tribune.]

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

Wheat Crop of England.

England, which built up home agriculture during the U-boat days, finds it hard to compete with the present abundant and relatively cheap offerings of American and Canadian wheat. The Morning Post, one of the chief advocates of home agriculture, points out that even government compensation did not save the grower from loss last season. It expresses the fear that English acres may cease to grow wheat entirely.

Over one million quarters of the new crop of the United States have been sold in advance for delivery in Liverpool. The price on the lot is said to come to 52 shillings a quarter. English farmers rather than contend with importations at the equivalent of $1.50 a bushel may well abstain from wheat sowing this autumn.

Unfortunately, no doubt, now as always for the English farmer, cheap grain from across the Atlantic has brought better living to the mass of the British people. Decreasing wages and unemployment have to some extent been offset in the past two years by the lower cost of bread.

Great Britain, because of its great population, must depend on industry, whatever becomes of its agriculture. The majority of the inhabitants must rejoice at cheaper grains, even from abroad. [New York Sun.]

Northern Pennsylvania to the Fore.
Northern Pennsylvania is decidedly in the political spotlight this year. With the famous forester, Gifford Pinchot, hailing from the neighboring county of Pike, as the Republican candidate for governor, and one of Scranton's most prominent citizens, Colonel David J. Davis, the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, this section of the commonwealth has certainly fared well at the hands of the party majority in the primaries. [Scranton Republican.]

Detroit Loses Old Issue.

For the first time in 25 years political leaders in Detroit are searching for a live issue with which to send out candidates on a hunt for votes. With the taking over of the Detroit United Railways properties at midnight Sunday the source of all local issues was removed. During the last quarter century every candidate for mayor of Detroit has based his solicitation for popular support upon his views concerning some phase of the local transportation fight. [Pittsburgh Dispatch.]

An Example of Distortion.

The New York World's statement that Pinchot's victory is a "rebuke for Harding" shows to what extent distortion of facts may go when one wishes to make a point either by hook or crook. Personally, we're red-hot for Harding, and no one can with truth impute any lukewarmness in our support of his administration. We were also for Pinchot, wholeheartedly and enthusiastically. What is there paradoxical in the position? [Philadelphia Inquirer.]

Spurs for the Navy.

Senator Capper in his weekly says that there is a chance of really doing something about war profiteers. The statute of limitations no longer protects them. The department of justice may find out who ordered six million sets of riding spurs for the army and navy.

For the navy, spurs seem preposterous. They can't make a battleship submarine go faster. [New York American.]

Lady Astor and Margot.

Lady Astor is said to be studying prohibition in America. As yet she has not found that amount of inebrity among American women that Margot talked about and, therefore, we are not leaving the truth about ourselves as rapidly as we did during the former visitation. [Tacoma Ledger.]

No Wonder.

While people still insist on squabbling over what took place centuries ago, you don't wonder that the Genoa conference doesn't get more miles to the gallon. [New York Tribune.]

Keep Politics Out.

The chief executive can do a fine service to the country by refusing to let politics creep into the Federal Reserve Board, and we trust that he will do it. [Boston Post.]

Siberia vs. Japan.

The Siberian Republic is going to begin a war on the Japanese. It will, in that case, provide the Japanese army with campaign manes. [Toronto Mail.]

Always the Case.

By the way, how is it that always when a man is bustled, the fellow at the other end of the telephone line has so much talk? [Albany Journal.]

A Lively Imagination.

What a wonderful congress it would be if every member were steering his course without regard to the November election. [Providence Journal.]

No Error.

Error on the side of too much severity hardly can be made. In the case of an automobile driver arrested for being drunk. [Buffalo Express.]

One-gained.

It remains unexplained why it is that most persons who ride in automobiles imagine that they are in a desperate hurry. [Albany Journal.]

Millennium Delayed.

The millennium will not come so long as each political party's best asset is the other's incapacity. [Boston Herald.]

Witchery and Devilry.

"There is witchery in moonlight. And even more diabolical influences in moonshine." [Washington Star.]

Greatly Needed.

What this country needs is a revolver that will count ten before it shoots. [Arcadia Journal.]

Mrs. Anderson to Conference.

Rev. Mrs. J. D. Anderson, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal church here, leaves this afternoon for New Rochelle, where she will attend the annual conference of the church in New York state, which is to be presided over by Bishop William H. Heard.

Mrs. Anderson takes with her a commendable report of activities at the local church during the past year. This report, which was read at the Sunday service by Mrs. Nettie Armstrong, church secretary, reveals both financial and religious work in excellent condition.

Mrs. Anderson will be away about two weeks and the church will be closed during that time.

LARGE TIGERS FROM INDIA

Cage of Them, One of Whom Is Known as The Riding Tiger, Coming With Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus May 31.

Tigers are largest of the cat family and when the majestic Hagenbeck-Wallace circus exhibits here on Wednesday, May 31, there will be seen some interesting feats performed by these ferocious beasts, among them being the riding tiger.

According to information received from the Hagenbeck-Wallace agent, the tiger surpasses the lion in size, the maximum length, including the tail, being about 11 feet and the largest weight about 500 pounds.

The tiger attains its full development in India, the Bengal variety being the largest and most typical, but it also occurs in southern Siberia, Turkestan, Persia, Java, Sumatra, China and Japan.

In habits these animals are far more active and agile than the lion and exhibit a large amount of fierce cunning. The number of persons killed by tigers each year in India averages about 930 and about 32,000 head of cattle are also annually killed by them.

Most of the tigers with the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus have been brought from India, though a few have been bred in captivity. The method of taming and training varies, but it takes many years before the trainer accomplishes perfect obedience.

The Hagenbeck-Wallace circus have wild animals shipped from many parts of the earth and years are spent in training them, with the result that it exhibits the greatest trained animal acts presented to the public today.

Besides the many trained animal acts, there is also presented the headliners of equestrian features. A mile long street parade will introduce the circus to the public this season on Wednesday morning, May 31.

MOTOR "PETTING" PARTIES

Under the Ban in Syracuse and Vicinity and Should be Elsewhere.

Petting parties are going to be under nightly surveillance by deputy sheriffs, who will put an end to parking of machines on lonely roads around the city. The drive to put a quietus on the petting began in earnest last week after complaints began pouring into Sheriff Isaac C. Davis at the rate of several a day.

The road leading towards Taunton and the Kimber road have been the favorite haunts for moon struck motorists on beautiful nights. Residents of those two sections have branded the petters as obnoxious pests who must be eliminated.

As the motoring season is now in full swing, Sheriff Davis feels the petters will increase rapidly unless drastic action is taken to show them that Onondaga county roads are no longer safe.

"There have been a great number of complaints in the past two weeks, and I have instructed my deputies to keep watch of the roads at night," Sheriff Davis said yesterday. "They have orders to make motorists move on when they find cars parked by the roadside."

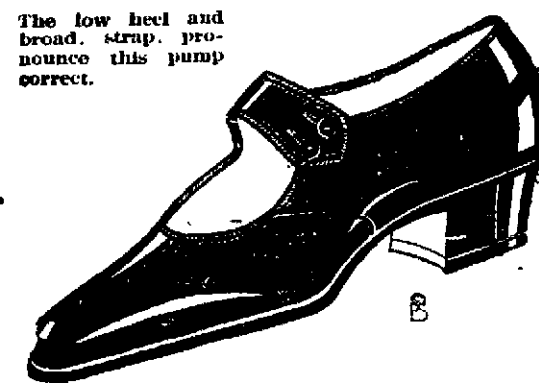

"Numbers of all machines will be taken for a short while. If this does not bring an end to these parties, then some arrests will be made on the ground that the motorists are guilty of being a public nuisance. Some of these folks turn the lights out on their cars and are a menace to other drivers because of the danger of collisions."

"Mere turning out of lights makes them guilty of a violation of the highway law. There are numerous sections of the law made, which we are at liberty to proceed, and it is very likely it will not be long before there are some arrests and test cases." Deputy sheriffs out nights during the past week took the numbers of nearly a dozen machines. Whether any steps will be taken against these motor owners has not yet been decided. TO MEET WITH CITY FATHERS

Special Meeting of Common Council Tomorrow to Confer with H. S. Swan, Zoning Expert—Many Resolutions Made for Forum Dinner Meeting at Elks' Club Wednesday Night.

Reservations made for the Forum dinner meeting tomorrow evening at the Elks' club under auspices of the Chamber of Commerce indicate that a representative audience will hear the address by Herbert S. Swan of New York city on "Enhancement of Real Estate Values by Zoning." The usual final day demand for reservations is expected at the Chamber of Commerce today, by mail and telephone, as the Forum committee will give Stewart and Peterson the final estimate on reservations after this evening's mail is received.

A special meeting of the Common Council for 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, to confer with Mr. Swan, and the Zoning committee and directors of the Chamber of Commerce, is being called by Mayor C. C. Miller, he stated yesterday. Due to Mr. Swan's prominence as sole consultant for 15 cities in drafting zoning ordinances, in addition to being secretary and consultant of the New York Zoning Commission, from the day it started work on the ordinances for the metropolis, adopted in 1917, until the present time, the Mayor believes that the city fathers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Mr. Swan's viewpoint on Oneonta's needs along lines of zoning and planning.

A comprehensive plan for control of building lines throughout all residential sections of a community was first devised by Mr. Swan in White Plains and Montclair. The need for building lines in Oneonta is becoming well-recognized because of encroachment of recent buildings on the building line of a street as established by precedent, and his advice along this particular field will be of special benefit.

As has been previously announced, all citizens, which naturally includes the ladies, are cordially invited to be present at the dinner Wednesday evening to hear Mr. Swan and join in the discussion. Reservations may be made by telephone to the Chamber of Commerce offices, 828, up to 6 o'clock this evening, and by mail up to 8:30 o'clock.

SOMETHING VERY NEW

Billy Allen Musical Comedy Company Present Original Act at Oneonta Theatre.

Oneonta theatre goers are being offered something entirely new in theatrical farce at the Oneonta theatre this week. Instead of the usual burlesque or vaudeville acts the management is presenting the Billy Allen Musical Comedy company in one-hour shows and these, with the regular program of pictures gives the patrons a quality and quantity of entertainment rarely equalled for the price charged.

The Billy Allen company made an undeniable hit yesterday with "Whose Daddy Are You." The girls of the chorus have the freshness of real youth and are beautifully costumed. Mr. Allen, as the leading comedian, is the hit of the show and the Four Pals, a male quartet, also land solidly. The Living Art Studios are a feature of the show.

"Whose Daddy Are You" will be played again today and tomorrow Mr. Allen will produce an entirely new comedy, "Don't Tell My Wife." The photoplay for today is Marguerite Clark in "Scrambled Wives."

Business Women Hike.

The Business Women's club of this city enjoyed an early morning hike Sunday morning. There was a large number of persons who gathered at the corner of Center and Walling avenue at 6:30 a. m. for the hike. They carried with them provisions and utensils with which to prepare breakfast. The breakfast may have been prepared and served in make-shift fashion, but the appetites of the hikers were such that it was enjoyed to the utmost. The hike lasted only three hours and the happy group returned to the city at 9 o'clock, just in time to prepare for church.

Chapter Masons Banquet.

A large delegation of Royal Arch Masons, including several from Cooperstown and Stamford, were present at the banquet given in Masonic hall last evening in honor of Grand Scribe John F. Birmingham of New York city. The dinner, which was served by the ladies of the Eastern Star, proved most appetizing. There was no degree work, the evening being given up to a much enjoyed address by Mr. Birmingham and a social session.

NEARLY ALL PLAYERS HERE

Manager Bridwell's Squad About Complete—Two New Players Signed—Practice Started Yesterday.

Two new players, McCarthy and Gilmore, were added to the ranks of the Oneonta Giants yesterday. McCarthy is a catcher of high calibre who played last season in Oklahoma City. Gilmore will be remembered by Oneonta fans as the snappy short stop with the Binghamton Imperials last season. Both men are capable performers and should add strength to the Oneonta lineup.

Manager Bridwell had such of his charges as were in the city out for a short practice yesterday and was well satisfied with their preliminary work. Alexander, Scanlon, Thomas, Sinistock, McCarthy, Hatch, Snyder and Gilmore composed the squad. Pitcher Herschler arrived on the evening train and Outfielder Field was expected to arrive on the sleeper. Catcher Henry is due today and Pitcher Schwartz is expected any time now. Eddie Farrell, who has been doing exceptional work at the University of Pennsylvania this year, will arrive on June 6 and Hermann and Stofen are due from Colgate about June 21.

There was a rumor about the streets again yesterday to the effect that Hermann had signed with the Albany Bonackers and would not be seen in an Oneonta uniform this season. Manager Bridwell and Dr. Marx state that Hermann will positively play with the Giants this year.

LEGION POPPIES ON SALE

All Should Buy Blossoms to Help Disabled and Sick Veterans of World War.

The poppies which the American legion is to sell from now until Memorial day, for the benefit of the Veterans' Mountain camp at Tupper Lake in the Adirondacks, were distributed to various selling points in the city yesterday afternoon, and before nightfall a good number of people were wearing the red blossom, which means so much to every man who fought in Flanders Fields.

The poppies, which sell for ten cents each, are on sale at the following stores: Carr Clothing company, E. L. Ward, E. M. Roman, Pastime Billiard parlor, Florence L. Wyckoff, Derrick the Florist, Goldthwaite's Book store, Oneonta Coal & Supply company and the Capion company.

The proceeds from the sale of the artificial blossoms will go to the support of the camp for disabled and sick ex-service men which the American legion has established at Tupper Lake. The camp is already being used to care for tubercular veterans, and its number of patients is growing daily.

Prizes on Display.

The prizes for the Kellogg Prize Speaking contest, for which the various contestants will compete Friday evening of this week, are now on display in the office of Principal Van Duesen at the High school building. The books are most carefully edited and are beautifully bound in rare leather. The prizes for the girls are: Jackson Works, four volumes, first prize; Elliot's works, two volumes, second prize. The prizes for the boys are: first prize, Dumas' works, four volumes; second prize, Works of Cooper, two volumes.

The participants are hard at work at the last preparations for the delivery of the various selections. The contest should receive interested support from the citizens of Oneonta, who have at this time one of the best opportunities to judge the ability of the younger generation in public speaking.

Pomp of Ancient Orient.

The ancient Orient with all its pomp and pageantry is brought vividly before the eyes in the William Fox super-special, "Queen of Sheba," which began a three-day run at the Strand theatre yesterday. Large crowds were present at all performances, and everyone was well satisfied with the production, which ranks among the best ever presented in Oneonta. Chariot races, great battle scenes, wonderful ballets—all are interwoven into the absorbing love romance of one of the most beautiful women the world has ever known. Special music adds to the impressiveness of the vast spectacles portrayed.

ELKS' HOME NEARLY READY

Construction Work Practically Complete and Furniture is Expected Next Week—Hoped to Have Opening About Middle of June.

Although much work, mostly of a minor character, remains to be done at the Elks' new home, the end is in sight and it is the fervent hope of the building committee that the last detail will be completed early in June so that the building will be ready for occupancy by at least the middle of that month. The carpenter work and decorating is practically completed, and the wiring and plumbing finished for the most part. Considerable work must be done to the outside of the building and about the grounds, however, before the opening can be held. The new rugs, hangings and furniture are expected to arrive next week. The bowling alleys have been laid and the billiard and pool tables have arrived but have not yet been set up.

It was intended not to open the building for any lodge or public functions until fully completed but owing to the lack of dining facilities for a large number of people due to the closing of the big Oneonta Hotel dining room the committee relented and the dining room will be used by the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday evening of this week. No definite date has been set but it is hoped that the big opening can be held about the middle of June.

HELP THE NEEDY ONES.

Near East Clothing to Be Collected Friday and Saturday.

Clean the attic and the closet to help clothe the needy ones of the Near East, asks the Oneonta committee, for the people are going in rags and nakedness while the looms of the Near East are still. The production of cotton and wool has ceased with the seven years of war, and the raw materials sent from America for the manufacture of cloth are only those imported by the Near East relief to be woven into cloth at its industrial schools and workshops. And these people must be clothed. If we have no second-best to give them, why not the best? We can duplicate our clothes in this country with little effort, whereas a lifetime of effort in a country where there are no industries will not avail a man so much as an undershirt. The entire populace over there is in rags and tatters, excepting only those who are fortunate enough to get old clothes from America. And the demand is imperative. By the time we can get the fruits of our attic cleaning to Mount Ararat, the winter snows will be there. And let us not forget that a frayed overcoat, or a forgotten suit, may save a life.

Those having bundles will please phone their names and addresses to the Y. M. C. A., 534-W, and they will be collected on Thursday and Friday of this week. Oneonta will surely make a record that the citizens will be proud of, as it does in all things. Every family should have at least one garment that could be spared so that those who have nothing might have something.

TO WORK HALF TIME

D. & H. Shops Will Work Two Weeks Monthly.

In referring to the closing of the D. & H. shops in that city the Carbondale correspondent of the Scranton Republican says "It is expected that the shops will be operated alternately each two weeks in order that the employees may work about half time." No announcement to that effect has been made here, although it has been accepted that the shops would not likely be operated on full time during the continuation of the coal strike.

TO RELIEVE PILES YOU MUST REMOVE THE CAUSE

The highest authorities agree that piles are caused by enlarged veins due to faulty circulation and stagnant blood in the lower bowel. It therefore is impossible to treat piles successfully from the outside. An internal remedy is necessary, one that will stimulate the circulation in the lower bowel and so drive the piles away. COLAC PILLS contain medicines which speed up the circulation, help to reduce

Both Families Thankful.

Floyd Berry and family of Shattara Springs are congratulating themselves that they moved a few days ago from a house in that village. Another family who had rented the house, also probably feel equally congratulatory that they had delayed moving in until the latter part of this week. If either of the families had been in the house when lightning struck it during the thunder storm at midnight Monday of last week someone surely would have been killed. The bolt struck a chimney in the center of the roof of the upright part and demolished it: it then entered through the roof and blew out the gables in both ends of the attic, then followed the chimney down to the first floor, shot across the front room, and made its exit by tearing off a large section of clapboard at the corner. The partition between two rooms on the first floor was splintered to kindling wood. Mr. Berry and his five-year-old son formerly occupied a bed which stood against this partition. The partition on the second floor, on each side of which formerly stood beds occupied by Mrs. Berry and her five daughters was even worse than the one down stairs.

Funeral of Walter A. Austin.

The funeral of Walter A. Austin, who passed away at his home at 18 Cliff street early Saturday morning, was held from his late residence at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The house was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends who had known the deceased for many years. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. E. J. Farley of the First Baptist church. He spoke words of comfort to the family and closed with prayer.

There was a profusion of floral offerings including pieces from the Knights of Columbus and from the choir of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church of this city, as well as from numerous friends and neighbors.

The bearers were: Jerry Butts, George Hartshorne, Timothy Mahoney and Charles Chesesebrough. Those who were present from out of town included Mrs. Edith Duell of New York city and Norman Blecker of Albany.

Interment was in Plains cemetery.

Mrs. W. D. Bruce Dead.

Friends of W. D. Bruce, well known in this city, will regret to learn of the death of his wife, Grace M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Springer, which occurred Saturday morning at her home, 8 Pleasant avenue, Birmingham, following a short illness.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home. She is survived by her husband, W. D. Bruce, one daughter, Jane, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Springer, and two brothers, Earl P. and Lynn W. Springer, all of Birmingham.

Mr. Bruce is well known in this city, where he spent much of his time for four or five years in connection with his position as field representative of the Standard Oil company of New York.

Blivens, who drank poison green, may have had foul play at the hands of other persons, the Sheriff in company with Chief of Police Officer Smith and District Attorney Truesdell conducted an investigation Saturday.

The wife of the letter who failed to sign his or her name stated that Blivens had $150 on his person before he took the poison green, but a search of the house failed to reveal any trace of the money.

Hobart, May 22. — Barely if ever has more affectionate regard been shown for a young person than was shown Miss Betty Sheffield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. The services were conducted by Rev. W. N. Hawkins, rector of St. Peter's church, using the beautiful service of the Episcopal church.

The funeral procession passed by the plants of these two companies, and as it passed the employees assembled in front and stood at attention as the body passed. The new oil range that challenges every known cooking device in speed, economy and reliability

Two, three and four-burner Superflex Stoves, each equipped with one Giant Superflex burner.

THE largest makers of oil cook stoves in the world have now perfected a model that is unsurpassed for every kind of household cooking.

New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves have long been recognized as the leaders in their field. And this latest model, now being offered for the first time, is the leader of the whole New Perfection line.

This latest New Perfection is equipped with the new and vastly improved Superflex burners—a revolutionizing step in oil stove construction. This new Superflex burner, with its double wall and double draft, gives the cooking speed of gas, together with the acknowledged economy and convenience of kerosene oil.

To accommodate these Superflex burners and the Giant Superflex, pictured above, a stove has been designed that in beauty, strength, convenience, general satisfaction and economy is in a class by itself.

New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves are known and used the world over, nearly 4,000,000 in America alone. Their many conveniences appeal strongly to busy housewives. There's no coal hod or wood box to keep filled, no ashes to carry out, no kindling litter to clean up.

Most oil stove users burn Socony Kerosene because of its uniform quality and economy.

A WHALE OF A TROUT

New Brighton Fisherman Slays Large Specimen Here in Wilds of Potter County.

For the past few years a party of New Brighton fishermen have been coming to the Wilds of Potter county in quest of trout, says A. A. Burdard in the Coudersport, Pa., Enterprise. They are good sports and therefore good fishermen but there is an old adage that "all fishermen are liars but all liars are not fishermen," which has nothing at all to do with this story.

The shining light of this New Brighton crowd is one J. D. Bruhn and last Saturday while fishing in the Mill creek he sighted a specimen of the funny tribe that would almost put some of the pre-historic specimens to shame. This animal and it was a trout of the German Brown species, is reported by Mr. Bruhn to have been 36 inches in length and to have been sunning himself on the top of the ripples of a small pool. The trout was so large that his back showed fully four inches above the water and he was evidently taking a noon day siesta for his eyes were closed and there emitted from his cavernous throat sounds that resembled very much the snores of a sleeping giant.

This particular fish was so large that Mr. Bruhn feared to wake him, but returned to the Hotel Crittenden to secure the services of his companions in aiding him to secure a picture of this fish. The party returned to the place where Mr. Bruhn had seen the trout and were forced to believe his story when they were shown a spot in the gravel in the bed of the pool where the trout's belly had rested and their attention was directed to the fact that the height of the water on the bank of the stream had recently diminished, due no doubt to the trout leaving the pool after his nap. Mr. Bruhn has offered a reward of $50.00 for anyone who gets a look at this particular fish and $100.00 for anyone who catches him. The trout may be distinguished by a small yellow spot just back of the right ear.

The parties vouching for the truth of this story to the Enterprise man are J. T. Moltrup, I. C. Anderson, W. H. Elverson, Sias C. Merrick, C. Capper and A. L. Bingham.
